MESSAGE FROM HEADTEACHER

Dear Parent/ Carer,

Welcome back after our half term break. This week is World Book day, the children have been asked to come in dressed as a book character or in their Pyjamas ready for a bedtime read! The children have also been asked to be creative with cardboard tubes– creating their favourite book characters. We look forward to seeing the creativity flow on Thursday.

The classes will all present a class assembly this half term. Do check our online calendar for the dates for your child's class. The class teachers will text out reminders for these nearer to their date.

We have now entered the season on Lent and the children are watching daily reflections from One Life Music . We were fortunate to welcome Dan and Emily into school just before the half term to lead a full day retreat. The children thoroughly enjoyed the day.

Our OFSTED report has now been published and we have the pleasure of sharing this with all stakeholders. The report will be sent to all parents today. Please do take the time to read the report. We are very pleased to continue to be recognised as a good school. The Ofsted inspectors commented ' This is a friendly and happy school...' 'Leaders are passionate about making sure the school is a positive place to be..' 'Pupils are proud of their school and say they feel safe...'

The weather is due to be cold this week, please ensure your child comes to school with a coat each day, this way if the weather changes they have a coat for break times.

We are still awaiting a date for First Confessions, as soon as Father Anthony provides a date for us we will inform Y3 parents. Thank you for your patience with this matter. We do have the dates for First Holy communion (7th May) and Confirmation (June 12th).

Mrs Clack will be joining us after Easter to cover Year Reception whilst Mrs Middleton is on Maternity leave. We wish her well in her new role.

Mrs C Faulkner
Headteacher
